

14 August 2020

To be attributed to an AMA spokesperson

AMA Queensland welcomes the passing of legislation banning conversion therapy in Queensland. This practice has no basis in medicine and can cause significant harm. AMA Queensland lobbied for clear wording in the legislation to ensure doctors who deliver evidence-based therapies in the field of gender dysphoria, would not be liable for prosecution. We are happy to see our concerns were addressed to ensure clarity.”